

Amanda Neff

freelance graphic designer, Business Owner

Objective

To provide quality design tailored to each individual client, driven to help others succeed by being involved in all parts of the design process.

Skills

Adobe Creative Cloud Suite
Acrobat DC
Photoshop
Illustrator
InDesign

Data Visualization
Illustration
Infographics
Print Design
Web Design & Development
HTML 5 & CSS 3
Identity Branding
Microsoft Office
Creative Services

Interests

Video Games
Dungeons & Dragons
Reading
Star gazing
Sketching

Experience

Freelance Graphic Designer | ApexBlue Creative | May 2015 – Present

I Founded ApexBlue Creative in 2015 to provide a wide range of design services for formats including print, digital, and web. Clients range from individuals to medium-sized corporations in various industries.

- Department of Defense Proposal Graphics
- Wedding Stationery
- Web Design and Development (CMS)
- Educational Material
- Identity Branding
- Client and Project Management
- Adobe Stock Access

Graphic Designer | Riverside Research | Oct 2015 – May 2018

Provided In-house graphic design services to a variety of business units with a range of areas of expertise. Fast-paced environment that required quick turnaround and time management to ensure delivery of multiple ongoing projects. Managed stock of promotional material and worked with HR to order and deliver materials for multiple locations.

- Department of Defense Proposal Graphics
- In-house Graphic Design Support
- GUI Asset Design
- Convention Promotional Material
- Business Form Creation (Acrobat)
- HTML & CSS Web Development
- Drupal CMS

Education

Associates Degree of Applied Business in Advertising Art

The Modern College of Design | 2013 – 2015

Media Design Technologies

Pickaway-Ross Career and Technology Center | 2011 – 2013